Eldorado Bootstrap
Program Receives
Nationwide Publicity

THE EVENING: It was a full evening yesterday. Timotheus covered the freshman-sophomore game at Taylor Field, which you can read about on the sports page. Then I watched and listened to the story of Eldorado's Operation Bootstrap and the Salvation Army program on television.

The Eldorado story was on Edward R. Murrow's half-hour program on the CBS television network and I'll say right from the start that our neighbor city got plenty of nationwide publicity. I was watching on Nashville's Channel 5 and must confess that although some of the program did not come in to my living room, a lot of it did.

There were 15 minutes devoted to Eldorado, and the first local scene was of Dering mine, last Eldorado colliery which closed in March, 1952. Once there were eight mines, then there were three, then there was none, the announcer said.

Jess Chandler, president of Eldorado's Labor Association for Industrial Development, talked, telling of the decision for Laid to try to pull the town up by its bootstraps. Mrs. Mart Watson told of the community getting together. There were scenes of the Bootstraps venture and of a big meeting in the high school auditorium. Shown speaking were T. Leo Dodd and Atty. Robert Wilson. Many familiar faces were seen in the audience.

Richard Poston of SIU, driving force behind Operation Bootstrap, spoke, and Murrow himself concluded the story by saying: "It's democracy at work—Eldorado asked no favors from anyone. If you're looking for a place to locate a plant, look into the possibilities at Eldorado, where everything already has been blueprinted. Write to Operation Bootstrap, Eldorado, Illinois."

The Salvation Army had a very nice program over WSIL-TV, with the Harrisburg and West Frankfort posts joining in a Cavalcade for their annual drive for funds. There was lots of local talent, plus music by Capt. and Mrs. Lodge of St. Louis and by a very excellent Salvation Army brass ensemble from St. Louis. This ensemble is made up of officers and Salvationists and they left immediately after the Cavalcade ended at 11:45 p. m. for St. Louis, as many had to report to work at 8 a. m. today.

A number of pledges came in but Lt. John Kimmons of the local post said the best thing about the program was that it told the Salvation Army story to a wide area.

Alaskan Voters Sweep Democratic Party to Power

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Alaska voters swept the Democratic party back into power after two years of Republican control, unofficial returns in the territory's general election indicated today.

Unofficial returns from 72 of the 262 Alaskan precincts indicate an overwhelming victory in Tuesday's election, with control of the Legislature and certain victory for the incumbent delegate to Congress, E. L. Bartlett.

Bartlett had a margin of 5,692 to 2,531 over Mrs. Barbara Dimock, Republican legislator from Anchorage and first woman ever to seek the post.

Only two Republicans were given a chance of being elected to the Legislature, both of them from the 1st Division.

Former Czechoslovakian Industrialist to Address Saline County Teachers Friday

R. Dale Wilson, county superintendent of schools, today announced that a man who spent two years behind the Iron Curtain will be the principal speaker at the Saline County Teachers Institute at the Harrisburg Junior high school Friday.

He is Dr. Richard Struna, a former Czechoslovakian industrialist, now an American physician, who has spent many years of his life fighting Totalitarianism.

"Dr. Struna," Wilson stated, "is a dynamic speaker who believes that the world is in great danger because the totalitarian systems have decided to destroy democratic culture and civilization."

"In Czechoslovakia he was president of one of the largest privately owned industrial enterprises until the Russians took it over as their own. It was not safe for Dr. Struna and his wife to remain there."

Dr. Struna will speak twice during the day, at 9:15 a. m. when his subject will be "Two Years Behind the Iron Curtain in Czechoslovakia," and at 1:30 p. m. on the subject, "What America Means to Me."

Also scheduled to speak at the institute is another man well-informed on his subject. He is Rear Admiral Benton W. Decker (U. S. Navy Ret.), recently back from the Far East as an INS special correspondent. He has been booked to speak at 10:30 a. m. on the subject, "What I Saw and Learned in the Far East."

The institute will begin at 9 a. m. with group singing led by John Schork.

Set. Oct. 21-22 for Strike Votes at Paducah, Oak Ridge

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—Government, company and union officials have set Oct. 21-22 as dates for a vote by 4,500 atomic production workers on whether they will renew a strike here and at Paducah, Ky.

The date was agreed on late Tuesday by representatives of the National Labor Relations Board and officials of the Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers (CIO) and the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp.

A strike to enforce wage boost demands was halted by a court injunction issued Aug. 11 until after an 80-day waiting period under provisions of the Taft-Hartley Law.

The union members, all involved in making uranium 235 for atomic bombs, sought a 15-cent hourly increase. The company offered 6 cents. The present scale ranges from $1.58 to $2.40.

Edward V. Holloway

Edward V. (Eddie) Holloway, 56, well known local restaurant owner, died yesterday at 3 p. m. in the Lightner hospital following a long illness. He had been in failing health since last December and seriously ill for the past month.

He was born Sept. 24, 1898, to John P. and Josie Holloway in Russellville, Ky., and moved to Harrisburg around 45 years ago. In 1937 he married Essie Mattingly. He was owner and operator of Holloway's cafe which has been operating in Harrisburg nearly 40 years.

He is survived by his wife, Essie; his mother, Mrs. Josie Holloway; his father, Mr. John P. Holloway; his sister, Mrs. Laura Hess, Chicago, and three brothers, Hubert of Chicago, Lloyd, Pontiac, Mich., and Johnny of Venice, Calif.

Dr. Richard Struna

Kiwanians Elect
Dan Davis New Club President

Dan Davis, office manager for the Southeastern Illinois Gas company here, last night was elected president of the Kiwanis club for the new year to begin Jan. 1. He will replace John Schork, who is president this year.

Other officers elected at last night's meeting at the Masonic temple were Dr. James Gaskins, vice president; Ralph Woolard, re-elected secretary, and Vernard Clayton, re-elected treasurer. The new board of directors will be Bill Brashears, Ronnie Doerge, Fred Armstrong, Dr. G. R. Johnson, Loy Barger, Arthur M. Debes and Ray Durham.

Ray Durham was speaker for the Columbus Day program last night and told of the life of Christopher Columbus who discovered America with no desire for conquest but who gave the people of his time a new world.

Mr. Durham pointed out that while many men have changed the destinies of nations, only two have changed the course of the world. The first was Christ and the second was Columbus.

He told of the life of Columbus and the turmoil and turbulence which was prevalent during his time in Europe. Europe today, Mr. Durham stated, more than 450 years after Columbus' time, is still in the same turmoil which is even more pronounced now than it was then.

America has grown since Columbus' time, Mr. Durham said, and has been built by other men who have left the turmoil of Europe.

An announcement was made by John Schork, president of a division ladies' night meeting to be held at Anna Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 7 p. m. Reservations must be made by Oct. 19, he said. Many of the local club members plan to attend the meeting.

Mr. Schork also announced that the Birch magic show will be shown at Bonnell gym on Nov. 2. There will be a matinee for the children in the afternoon and the regular show that night. The club is sponsoring the show to help raise funds for its youth program.

13 Puerto Ricans
Found Guilty

NEW YORK (AP)—Thirteen members of the fanatical Puerto Rican Nationalist party were found guilty Tuesday night of conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government by violence.

Four of the defendants, three men and one woman, already had been convicted and sentenced to long prison terms for the March 1 shooting of five congressmen in the House of Representatives.

Federal Judge Lawrence C. Walsh set Oct. 26 for passing sentence. All thirteen, plus four others who pleaded guilty to the charges of conspiracy, face a possible maximum sentence of six years in prison plus fines of $5,000 each.

Find Body of Baby
In Lake Michigan;
Search for Father

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—Police searched Lake Michigan today for the father of an 11-month-old baby found drowned on a breakwater about a mile off Waukegan.

The search for Clifford Gibbs, 23, and his infant daughter started Tuesday when Mrs. Gibbs told police her husband was acting strangely.

U. S. Suspicious
Of Moscow's
Peace MovesBelieve Reds Operating Slight-
Of-Hand Game

WASHINGTON (AP)—American diplomats today kept a suspicious eye on Moscow's cascading peace moves in Europe, Asia and the United Nations.

So far, diplomats haven't entirely discounted the possibility that the Russians will back up their soft talk with deeds. But they are betting that the Reds are merely operating their old sleight-of-hand game, only on a bigger scale than ever.

Veteran diplomats remember that even in Stalin's days Soviet soft talk hit high peaks without producing any real relaxation of tensions. They recall futile hopes about peace after the Berlin blockade was lifted in 1949. And again when it was thought Russia might settle the Korean war following some soft talk back in 1951.

German Election Bid Cited

Now on Germany, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov has spoken about free, all-German elections. Diplomats are sure this will be followed up very soon by a Moscow-postmarked offer for a Moscow-Postmarked offer for a Big Four meeting on Germany. Once they get such a meeting going, the Russians hope to kill West German rearmament, see the United States retire from the continent in a huff, and still hold on to East Germany themselves.

In the Far East, the latest Soviet and Red Chinese negotiating on Port Arthur is viewed by diplomats as an effort, in part at least, to undercut United States influence in Japan and the whole Far East.

Once Soviet troops leave the Manchurian port, the Russians will be in a better position to make propaganda capital out of the presence of American troops in Japan, with the aim of creating anti-American sentiment in Japan.

A Russian withdrawal from China also will be followed, diplomats say, with new attacks on the United States and its relations with the Korean Republic, Formosa and all Southeast Asia.

In the United Nations, the Russians are pushing for disarmament but they still are shying away from any effective enforcement measures. So diplomats view this, too, as merely part of the global effort to sow confusion and discord among the Allies and thus snarl the free world's anti-Communist defense program.

In short, although the new Russian leaders are talking about possible concessions to the West, there is no evidence available that they actually will make any.

Article Says Dixon-Yates Assured of Risk-Free Income

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says in a copyrighted story that the controversial Dixon-Yates contract "contains numerous provisions giving the private power combine a virtual risk-free guarantee of earning 9 per cent on invested capital of 5 1/2 million dollars."

The Dixon-Yates contract, which permits the combine to sell the TVA power for transmission over TVA lines, has come under heavy fire from Democrats who charge that the contract was let without competitive bidding.

Informed of the Post-Dispatch story, Rep. Melvin Price (D-Ill.), a member of the Atomic Energy Joint Congressional Committee, said if the story was correct, the contract was "a scandalous operation."

Rutven E. Hedland, Forest Ranger of the Elizabethtown district in the Shawnee National Forest, will transfer on Oct. 24 to the LaCrosse district of the Superior National Forest in Minnesota. It was announced today by E. N. Lee, forest supervisor.

Ranger Hedland is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and entered the Forest Service in 1934 as foreman on the Ottawa National Forest in Michigan. During World War II, he spent three years with the armed forces, after which he returned to the Ottawa National Forest and worked his way up to assistant ranger on the Kenton district.

In March of 1951 he was transferred to the Elizabethtown district where he has served as forest ranger. While at Elizabethtown, he was in charge of planting several thousand acres of land to pine and was instrumental in re-

Johnson Begins Life Term for Vienna Murder

VIENNA, Ill. (AP)—Ardell Johnson, 49, who pleaded guilty late Tuesday to the murder of Mrs. Maggie Gray, 82, started a life term in the Menard State Penitentiary at Chester today.

Johnson had been scheduled to go on trial today for the murder during a robbery at Mrs. Gray's home here Aug. 2.

He pleaded guilty after being brought here Tuesday from the Williamson County jail.

A Johnson County grand jury indicted Johnson and Thomas L. Latham, 31, both Vienna negroes, for the murder. Latham pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 180 years in prison last month.

First District
Bar Meeting
Held at Marion

The First Judicial district of the Federation of Bar Associations had the largest attendance of any district bar meeting in the state when it met yesterday at Marion, Trafton Dennis of Harrisburg, retiring president, said today.

The First district, composed of bar associations from 34 southern Illinois counties, had held this honor in the past but last year lost it to another district. This year the honor was regained.

The meeting was held at the Orpheum theatre with Atty. Dennis presiding, responding to the address of welcome by Atty. Leon Culp of Williamson county, and introducing the speakers.

The program consisted of the following: "Proposed Legislation for the 1955 Session," by Charles G. Briggall Jr. of Springfield and Ivan A. Elliott Sr. of Carmi.

"Proposed Changes in the Probate and Trust Law," by Austin Fleming of Chicago.

"Proposed Changes in the Civil Practices Act," by Paul Farthing of Belleville, Ralph W. Harris of Marion and Guy E. McGaughey Jr. of Lawrenceville.

At a dinner meeting held at the Marion Elks lodge an address was made by Karl C. Williams, president of the Illinois State Bar association.

New officers were elected as follows: President, Norman Gundlach of Belleville; vice president, John G. Gilbert of Carbondale; secretary-treasurer, Robert G. Otteson.

The group will meet next year at East St. Louis.

Ex-Queen Narriman
Skips Out on Her Second Husband

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Egypt's divorced former Queen Narriman skipped out on her second husband today in a dash by plane to Europe.

Her unexpected trip touched off a flurry of speculation that her second marriage was on the rocks.

The sultry beauty, who once ran the night plane from Cairo to Paris and then flew to Switzerland with her mother, a 6 foot red-haired woman secretary and two pet poodles.

Her husband, Adham Nakeeb, who was left behind in Egypt, was frankly surprised. Close friends of Narriman in Alexandria also expressed surprise at the sudden trip. They commented that it was pretty expensive for the wife of a doctor who is struggling along on a salary equal to about $143.40 a month.

At the airport here Narriman said she was going to a Lausanne Clinic "for treatment."

Hedland transferred from Forest Ranger Post at Elizabethtown to Minnesota.

Stratton and GOP Dinner
Group DisagreeGovernor Denies Statement He Will Not Attend

CHICAGO (AP)—Republican Gov. William G. Stratton and sponsors of a GOP fund-raising dinner disagreed today over the scheduled appearance of Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson as principal speaker at the dinner.

Stratton issued a statement early today terming Wilson's "bird dog-kennel dog" remark at Detroit Tuesday as "unfortunate." He said Wilson's speech should be cancelled.

Edward L. Ryerson, president of the Republican Citizens Finance Committee of Illinois, and Fred M. Gillies, general campaign chairman, issued a joint statement that they hoped Wilson would appear.

"We issued a cordial invitation to Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson to speak at our dinner," the statement said. "We hope he will come and give a rousing talk. We have assured him he will be enthusiastically received."

While Stratton was en route to Chicago from Springfield by auto, his office said Stratton would not appear at the dinner if Wilson were there. The statement was made by Stratton's administrative assistant, William W. Downey.

When Stratton arrived in Chicago he denied he said he would not attend the dinner if Wilson appeared to speak.

Meanwhile, his Springfield office said the statement it issued about his non-appearance had not been authorized.

Stratton told Chicago newsmen he was going to talk to party leaders and would issue a statement late today.

Asked whether he would talk to President Eisenhower, Stratton said, "I may talk to him by telephone."

In his early morning statement, issued at Springfield, Stratton said Wilson's remarks at Detroit were contrary to the attitude of the nation and state GOP administrations.

Heart Attack is Fatal to Mrs.
Mary R. Myers, 84

Mrs. Mary R. Myers, 84, widow of the late Robert Myers, who died March 11, 1925, died at 7:30 last night at her residence, 409 West Raymond street. A heart attack with which she was stricken at 5 p. m. was the cause of her death.

Her body is at the Harrisburg funeral home, awaiting funeral arrangements, which will depend upon the time of arrival of a daughter from Green Tree, N. Mex., who left last night to return to her former home here.

Mrs. Myers was the daughter of Jacob and Katherine Gates, and was the oldest of 12 children. She was born in Warwick county, Ind. On Feb. 2, 1889 she was married to Robert Myers and they became well known rural residents of Saline county during his lifetime. Myers, Pankeville, and the daughter, Mrs. Mary Basinger, widow of O. C. Basinger, Green Tree, N. Mex.; also a sister, Mrs. Mary Christianson, Lake Village, Ind., and brothers, Everett Gates, RFD Harrisburg, Ed Gates who resides on West Raymond street, and Fred Gates, Eldorado.

Six grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren also survive.

Gov. Clement to Address Meeting
At West Frankfort

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee will speak at a fund raising dinner here Thursday night in behalf of Kenneth Gray of West Frankfort, Democratic candidate for congress from the 25th District.

Named to State
Bar Committee

Attorney Charles H. Thompson of this city has been appointed to the Illinois Criminal Law and Procedure committee by Karl C. Williams, Rockford, president of the Illinois State Bar association.

CRITICIZED — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson drew a deluge of criticism from an off-the-cuff remark that while he had "a lot of sympathy" for the jobless, he always "likes bird dogs better than kennel-fed dogs." Wilson, above, tells the dog story at Detroit.

To Discuss Blue
Ballot Issue
Here Saturday

A non-political meeting, to which the public is invited, will be held Saturday night at 7:30 at the court house in Harrisburg, for the purpose of discussing changes in the Illinois legislative districts, as proposed on the "blue ballot" to be voted at the general election Nov. 2.

Paul Powell, Democratic representative from the 51st district, will be the principal speaker, with Gordon Kerr, Brookport and W. O. Verhines, Vienna, Republican representatives, also to speak briefly.

County and district candidates representing both parties have been invited to attend and will be introduced.

Entertainment is scheduled. The meeting is one of a series of five to be held in each of the counties of the 51st district. Rep. Powell, in discussing the meeting, said: "Since this is a very controversial issue, and up to now the majority of the voters have heard only one side, I feel it is of utmost importance that everyone who possibly can should hear this discussion of the proposed amendment to our Constitution."

"There is no politics involved in this issue, and anyone who attends this meeting will certainly find this out."

The "blue ballot" to be given voters with their regular election ballot, contains three propositions. One proposition provides for redistricting the state so that Cook county will have a majority of representatives in the General Assembly while downstate will have a majority of senators.

Two other propositions are on the "blue ballot." One provides the term of office of the state treasurer to be four years instead of two and one relates to canals and waterways.

Seven Babies Dead
In Hospital; Seek
Source of Infection

GARY, Ind. (AP)—Health authorities today sought the source of an infection which killed seven premature babies and made 24 others ill in a diarrhea outbreak at Methodist Hospital.

Hospital Superintendent Everett Johnson said the cause of the mysterious outbreak was still "undetermined" and "we may not have all the cases yet."

Meanwhile the nursery for premature babies at the hospital was closed, and authorities contacted parents of discharged babies to check further spread of the infection.

The hospital disclosed the seven deaths and 24 cases of illness Tuesday. A spokesman said all the deaths occurred between Friday night and Sunday.

All the affected babies had been in the premature nursery at Methodist. Two of those who died had been discharged and died at Mercy Hospital.

Bacteriological studies are being made, Johnson said, to determine if the person or persons who carried the disease into the hospital can be located.

Governor Says
He Will Not Attend RallySec'y of Defense
Undecided About
Cancelling Speech

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and Republican Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois feuded publicly today over Wilson's controversial "bird-dog-kennel dog" remark about unemployment.

Stratton termed the remark "unfortunate" and requested that Wilson cancel his scheduled speech before a $100-a-plate GOP fund-raising dinner in Chicago tonight. The governor let it be known that he would boycott the dinner if Wilson showed up.

Wilson told reporters in Detroit he did not know whether he would cancel the speech. He said his remark had been misinterpreted and insisted that "no one would like to see everyone employed more than I would." The Cabinet officer added tartly that he had learned since he came under political fire that "your friends run fast."

Although the Wilson-Stratton dispute drew most of the attention today it wasn't a private feud by a long shot. Several Democrats chimed in with demands that Wilson apologize or that President Eisenhower fire him for what they called an insult to the nation's unemployed.

Some Republicans besides Stratton were quick to dissociate themselves from Wilson's statements. But Mr. Eisenhower came to Wilson's defense. A White House spokesman quoted Mr. Eisenhower as saying he had never known Wilson to be lacking in human sympathy.

Stratton Issues Statement
Stratton asserted in a statement early today that Wilson's now-famous "dog" remark was contrary to GOP policy and made the Cabinet officer unqualified to speak at the party dinner tonight.

Wilson, chairman of the county's GOP Central Committee, said "I don't know how" cancellation of Wilson's speech could be avoided.

In Illinois, Sen. Paul Douglas, Democrat, is battling to retain his seat against the campaign of Joseph T. Meek, Republican. The seat will be important in the closely divided Senate.

Wilson's controversial remark was made during a news conference in which he was discussing unemployment and the idea of putting defense work in areas where unemployment was high.

He said "This defense business of the country is too serious a business to look at as though it was 'made work' and just some."

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Railroads Complain To Ike
About Air Rivalry; Want
Subsidies For Airlines Or Else
Subsidies For Railroads; Ike Asks
For Secret Study.

WASHINGTON, — Inside story has never been told of how the railroads pressured President Eisenhower to cut their taxes or subsidize them outright, same as the big airlines. This led to a backstage study of the nation's transportation problems which has already brought one suggestion to create a new cabinet post, to be called "Secretary of Transportation."

It was William Farley, likable lobbyist for the Association of American Railroads, who put the bee on Ike. Farley, one of the ablest business representatives in Washington, began by golfing with the President. However, Ike does not like to talk shop on the golf course, so Farley delicately brought a delegation of railroad men around to the White House.

Those who accompanied him were Fred Gurley, president of Santa Fe; Harry De Butts, president of Southern; and Walter Franklin, ex-president of Pennsylv-vania.

They complained, with some justice, about the favored treatment the big airlines were getting from the government—the fact that the government supplies safety signals for the airlines, weather reports, heavy mail subsidies, and in some cases tax-free airports. Meanwhile, the railroads not only build their own railroad stations and tracks but pay heavy taxes.

Ike seemed unimpressed. He asked the railroad men to submit a written report.

Two weeks later, a confidential bill of particulars, entitled "government policies adversely affecting railroads," was laid on his desk.

This complained about the "selective diversion of the better-paying government freight, passenger, and mail traffic to subsidized competitors of the railroads," meaning the airlines.

THREE GOVERNMENT OFFENDERS
The report named three chief offenders: The Defense Department, General Services Administration, and Commerce Department. The railroads made three main suggestions.

1. The big airlines must be required to pay their own way, or the railroads must be subsidized.
2. The airlines must be taxed more or the railroads taxed less.
3. The railroads must be regulated less or at least their competitors must be regulated equally.

The President glanced over the report, then shunted it to White House aide Gabriel Hauge. This private memo was attached:
"Memo for Gabriel Hauge: I should like you to make a careful analysis of this paper and give me a report on the entire subject. I am particularly anxious that you contact each department especially mentioned in the document and obtain from each its written opinions and recommendations, if any.
(Signed) D. D. E."

WILSON SAYS NO
Hauge promptly sent the report around to the three government departments that the railroads had complained about. So far, an answer has come back from Secretary of Defense Wilson denying the charges.

As evidence that the Defense Department was not discriminating against the railroads, Wilson submitted the following statistics:

flooded with weepy phone calls and letters objecting to his romance, said today he won't "sacrifice" his personal life to the public.

The popular bachelor pianist revealed his rapture for dancer Joanne Rio last week, and the news proved catastrophic to the nation's Liberace adoring. They telephoned, cried, many crying, from around the nation or rushed special delivery letters to their idol.

They based their uproar on (1) Liberace won't love his mother as much if he marries; (2) his career will dwindle, or, (3) look what happened to Joe DiMaggio.

"I guess for a while they will be a little sore, but I'm sure if he marries, they would see it differently," Liberace reflected.

"I think anyone who sacrifices his personal life to the public is very foolish. I'm sure the public really wouldn't want that. Actually, women adore a lot of male performers who are married."

"I'm reading a book on Valentino," he confided, "and when he married there was a tremendous reaction against it. But when he took his wife on tour, people came out even more. The reaction of fans just goes in a different direction. Then they're interested in the babies, and so on."

Liberace's fan mail (6,000 letters weekly) is handled by pretty Sue Roberts. So far, 80 per cent of the letters want Liberace to remain the smiling bachelor behind his candelabra. The other 20 per cent approves of Joanne, but begrudges her.

"The day the story broke I thought I'd go wild," Miss Roberts said breathlessly. "Calls from Chicago, New York, Louisville, they'd say, 'Is it true?' and start to cry."
A 66-year-old widow from St.
Paul, wrote, "I feel sorry for your mother. The adoration you give her will have to be shared."

A Richmond Hill, N. Y., letter warned, "Don't get married because your career will be washed down the drain."

"Your appeal is the fact you're single," a Gardena, Calif., woman wrote. "If you have to get married, pick a plain type—not a glamour girl."

A Boston woman advised, "Don't forget Joe DiMaggio and the promises she made to him."

"I lost out again. I love you too much. I can't write no more.
I am crying too hard," said a letter from Milwaukee.

From Colfax, Iowa: "Why, oh, why, didn't you wait for me? I'm only 11 but I practice the piano every day."

A Detroit woman scolded, "How can you think of marriage? You belong to us."

Mrs. G. R. Thomas, Mrs.
Marie Fife Harris Delegates
To O.E.S. Grand Chapter

Mrs. Garfield R. Thomas, worthy matron, and Mrs. Marie Fife Harris, past matron of Rising Star chapter No. 717 of Order of the Eastern Star, were delegates at the 80th grand chapter session held in Springfield Oct. 4, 5 and 6.

There were delegates present from nearly every town in the state.

The armory served as the site for all business sessions which was climaxed with formal installation rites. Several hundred worthy matrons and associate matrons and patrons of chapters throughout the state participated in the ceremonies.

Mrs. Clara A. Harbaugh, worthy grand matron, and J. Willis Daniels, worthy grand patron, opened the session amid a profusion of color. The background for the "Grand East" consisted of a huge outline of the state of Illinois in colors of the order, blue, yellow, white, green and red. In the center of the outline was a large red heart carrying out the theme of the convention, "The Heart of Illinois."

Mrs. Grace Mae Neuhaus and Joseph J. Cral, both of Chicago, were installed as the new worthy grand matron and worthy grand patron.

The next year's meeting will be held in Chicago.

Marines' Directive Orders Rehearsals On Cutting Cakes for 179th Birthday

WASHINGTON (UP) — Marine Corps Commandant Gen. Lemuel B.
Shepherd Jr. issued a four-page directive today on how to cut a cake.

It calls for dress rehearsals, and protocol.

The reason the corps is unusually interested in cake at the moment is that Nov. 10 is its 179th birthday and an essential part of the celebration will be ceremonial cakecuttings.

"Every effort should be made through rehearsal," said Shepherd in his special directive, "to insure that the ceremony proceeds smoothly and is executed in a precise military manner."

Described in Detail
This precise military manner was described in detail. In seven paragraphs, Shepherd explained how Marines are formed in a rectangle around the cake.

After this, there are "short" addresses by the commanding general and guest of honor. Then "The senior cake escort steps forward, takes a sword from the cake cart and passes it over his left forearm—grip forward—to the commanding general."

"The band or orchestra plays
'Auld Lang Syne' while the first slice of cake is being cut," the directive continues. "The commanding general places the first slice of cake on a plate handed to him by

Historian John Allen Speaks at Meeting of Saline County Women's Clubs

John W. Allen, Southern Illinois university professor, returned to his old home at Eldorado Tuesday evening to speak at a meeting of the Saline County Federation of Women's clubs. This well known curator of the SIU historical museum chose last night to speak of characters and personalities whose influence affect history not only in southern Illinois but nationally.

He spoke of General John A.
Logan, William Jennings Bryan, Robert Ingersoll, Mike Fink, the Harries who were riverboat pirates, Logan Belt, and Morris Burke.

He mentioned the fact that a young judge named Parish presided at a noted trial in Franklin county and that his instructions to the jury are used in nine out of ten cases in courts all over the United States, or are cited during the trial.

The personality that he chose to emphasize was that of William Newby, who volunteered to serve in the Union Army during the Civil War, was shot in the head, and left for dead on the battlefield. But, a demented prisoner who emerged from Andersonville prison was later identified as William Newby.

The riddle of this personality, confused with that of another man from the same community at Mill Shoals, Ill., who was wounded in the head accidentally and also became demented, formed another court trial that is one of the most frequently mentioned in law circles as a court record of post Civil War tragedy.

Mr. Allen was presented by Miss Edna Burnett, Eldorado, and the meeting was presided over by Mrs.
Jacob W. Myers, Harrisburg, community federation president. Mrs. J. M.
Hart is secretary.

Mrs. E. B. Webster heads a committee composed of presidents of the Eldorado, Raleigh and Harrisburg clubs to nominate new officers for the county federation at the March meeting which will be held in Harrisburg.

Mrs. J. L. Miller, president of the Harrisburg club, Mrs. L. B.
Kimmei, Mrs. Nelle Meyers, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Webster,
Mrs. Stanley Wilson, Miss Bess
Pemberton, Mrs. L. I. Webb, and Mrs. C. C. Porter were present from the Harrisburg club.

Autumn leaves and red berries were used in decoration of the meeting place, which was at Calvary Baptist church, and dainty sandwiches, cookies, tea and col-fee were served by the members of the two clubs at Eldorado.

Mrs. Graydon Davidson, president of the Eldorado club was the presiding hostess.

Mrs. Kenneth Price, 927 West Barnett, recently returned from Maywood, Calif., where she was called because of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Jesse E.
Cousert, former resident of Eldorado. Mrs. Cousert, who resides with her husband at 6137 Mayflower Ave., was much improved at the time of Mrs. Price's departure.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Raley have as their guests their daughter, Mrs.
G. M. Hallett, and granddaughter,
Sandra Gale, of Charleston, S. C.
Mrs. Hallett is the former Patricia Ann Raley. Mr. Hallett, who is now in Chicago on business, will join his family here in a few days for a brief visit before their return to Charleston.

SUSPECT

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

Copyright 1954 by Hugh Lawrence Nelson. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: A woman sheriff, Mrs. Toby Argyle, is investigating the death of Mrs. Angelica Jones, of the wealthy Carlson clan which is summering at the Carlson estate in Colorado. Jim Dunn, a private detective, and Nancy, his wife, have been retained to do some investigating there for Mrs. Kit Carlson who wanted to "get something" on Mrs. Hilton Carlson, her mother-in-law. Angelica is Mrs. Kit's sister-in-law. In an effort to protect his client, Jim makes a search and finds what may be a hiding place, although it is empty, in a recess behind the wood elevator on which Angelica's body was found. As he makes the discovery, Mrs. Gelstrap, Mrs. Kit's cook, douses him with hot water. Immediately Mrs. Gelstrap is attacked by Miss Wister, Jim's secretary. Sheriff Argyle restores order.

Pain cleared Miss Wister's eyes, and the mask of rage left her face. "All right," Sheriff Argyle said. "What's this little ruckus about?" "She—she tried to scald Jim," Miss Wister panted.

"I didn't know how was I to know he was down there?" Mrs. Gelstrap whined and hiccuped. "I heard noises in the basement and scratchings inside the woodbox. I thought maybe someone was trying to get in that way. Trying to get in and hurt Mrs. Kit. That's what I thought."

Miss Wister laughed insultingly. Mrs. Gelstrap contended herself with a glare.

Jim Dunn said, "I was looking around, standing on the platform of the elevator. The door of the woodbox opened and a lot of boiling water came down over me." Jim stopped talking long enough to realize he was not burned. His face tingled a little, but that was all. "Well, a lot of hot water," he amended.

"I didn't know what she was going to do," Miss Wister went on. "All at once, she ran out into the kitchen, came back carrying a pail of water from the stove. She pulled up the trap door there and dumped it down. I heard Mr. Dunn yell. When Mrs. Gelstrap started for another bucket of water, I stopped her."

Agnes Argyle walked over to the woodbox and lifted the lid. She spoke at last, and her voice was husky. "I see you found a hiding place, Mr. Dunn."

"Found it empty," Jim said. "But it might explain why Angelica Jones came here, why she was around the elevator."

"It could. And you found it empty?"

"Yes. You can see marks in the dust on the bottom where someone has swept it out, cleaned it."

"No," Sheriff Argyle said. "I can't see that. Not now. Well, Mrs. Gelstrap, maybe you'd better tell me what your real purpose was in pouring that water."

"I told you," the cook said sulkily. "I heard what you said. Try again. Your water throwing did a thorough job of sluicing out the hidey-hole."

Nancy said, "What goes on at the main house? I seem to be getting everything second-hand Jim."

He told her of the water, of the fight between Miss Wister and Mrs. Gelstrap. "I'm banished for the time being," he went on. "Obviously to change clothes. Meanwhile I think the sheriff is on the phone again, reporting to headquarters, to Mrs. Oswald. And they're trying to get Mrs. Kit awake. Seems to be an idea we should all gather happily under the Carlson roof in the place across the lake."

Nancy nodded. Apparently the move was no news to her. "Be handler for Agnes," she said.

"I noticed you two hit it off. What did you tell her, Nancy?" "Everything I knew."

"Think that was wise?" Jim asked mildly.

"Of course, Jim. Really she is remarkable. She's also understanding and shrewd."

"Shrewd, I'll grant you," Dunn said. "She have anything to say as to why Mrs. Hilton hasn't been over here?"

"No. Why should she? Mrs. Hilton, I mean."

"Her daughter's dead," Jim said. "After all—"

"I guess the Carlsons are a little different," Nancy said. "And I suppose Agnes told Mrs. Hilton not to come. After all, what could she do?"

"Nothing, I suppose," he said. "Here's a little word of caution. It's just possible Sheriff Agnes is buttering you up for her own reasons."

"It isn't like that," Nancy said indignantly. "And anyway you were right about one thing. Agnes already knew about the California business. And maybe I shouldn't tell you this, but I think she knew beforehand that Mrs. Kit and Mrs. Gelstrap were coming here."

Jim was more interested in the first part of that statement than in the news itself. "Why shouldn't you tell me?"

Nancy looked away from her husband. "After all it was more or less in confidence."

"I see." A horrid suspicion took root in Jim's mind and flourished. He decided to put it to the test. "Did Agnes—and I suppose I might as well adopt your informality—say who she suspected of the killing?"

Stratton, Wilson
Feud Over Remark

thing to dish out to keep somebody busy."

He went on to say a group from one "distressed" area told him, "You know you've just reduced the draft. In our district there are 110 more young men that won't have to go to the Korean front now and that'll add to our unemployment."

He told the news conference, "The idea that a 19-year-old boy could be drafted and sent to Korea to be shot at and he didn't have enough gumption to go 100 miles and get himself a job—I don't go for that."

Then he followed with the remark which touched off the political controversy:

"And I've got a lot of sympathy for people where a sudden change catches 'em—but I've always liked bird dogs better than kennel-fed dogs myself. You know, one will get out and hunt for food rather than sit on his fanny and yelp."

Mitchell Blasts Wilson

Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell termed Wilson's remarks "cruel and stupid." He said they are a "vivid demonstration of a basic difference between the Republican and Democratic parties" on economic issues.

Mr. Eisenhower suggested in a statement from his vacation White House at Denver that Wilson's statement had been misconstrued. He said he never had found Wilson "indifferent to human misfortune."

Rep. Samuel Yorty (D-Calif.), a candidate for the Senate, sent a telegram to Mr. Eisenhower demanding Wilson's removal. Yorty said "His invidious comparisons of American citizens with dogs is so revolting that it reminds one of the divine right of tyrant kings during the Dark Ages of human slavery."

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) also demanded Wilson's ouster. He said if his "understanding of Mr. Wilson's statement is accurate, he missed a fine opportunity to keep a civil foot in his mouth."

Romney Elected
President of Auto
Firm; Denies Merger

DETROIT 4P—George W. Romney denied that American Motors Corp. was engaged in merger talks with Studebaker-Packard Corp. in his first public statement after being elected president of American Motors Tuesday.

The firm's board of directors elected Romney, former executive vice president of the firm, to be president, board chairman and general manager of the firm to succeed the late George W. Mason. Mason died unexpectedly last week.

The 47-year-old Romney said there "have been no merger discussions . . . and there are none now of a direct or indirect nature."

FORMER LOCAL PLAYERS, who are now on football varsity at the Missouri School of Mines at Rolla. They are (left to right) Valgene Gribble, Bob Williams and Dick Boyett.

Three Former Harrisburg Grid Players On Varsity at Missouri School of Mines

Three former HTHS footballers are members of the varsity gridiron squad at the Missouri School of Mines. They are Valgene Gribble, Bob Williams and Dick Boyett.

Gribble plays left halfback on the Mines' team and is a holdover from last year. He had a major share in the Mines' upset victory over favorite Southeast Missouri State college early this season, romping to the winning TD with three minutes remaining in the game. The final score was 18-12.

He also lettered in track at the school last year, and holds membership in the Engineers' club, Independents and M club. A transfer student from SIU, Valgene is married to a Rolla girl, the former Sally Reemer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Gribble, Route 3, Harrisburg.

Williams, a two-time letterman on the squad, plays right end. He has also lettered twice in track at Missouri Mines. At HTHS, he played two years on the baseball and football teams and participated in track one year. He is a member of the Engineers' club, M club, student council and the St. Pats Board. Bob is married to the former Dorothy Barnett, Harrisburg, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Williams, Route 3, Harrisburg.

Boyett broke his hand before the first game of the season but is ready now to see action. He is out for a tackle berth with the Mines. At HTHS he lettered two years in both football and track and participated one year in basketball. A member of the Engineers club and Independents, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boyett, 211 E. Raymond.

Picking the Grid Winners IN THE Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRELEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (U.P.) — Frayley's Follies and the weekend football "winners" — along with a few personal views on varied gridiron subjects.

Game Of The Week
Duke over Army — Everything points toward an upset, with Duke banged up last week by Purdue and Army getting stronger every outing. But the Blue Devils want this one badly and they're playing before the home folks, which should inspire Duke to an "up" performance.

The East
Navy over Pitt — College football is more exciting than pro. Penn State over West Virginia — Tacklers should be charted like ball carriers.

Rutgers over W&M — But only a moron would want to "die for dear old Rutgers."

Also: Columbia over Harvard, Brown over Princeton, Yale over Cornell, Penn over George Washington, Colgate over Dartmouth, Syracuse over Boston University, Boston College over Fordham, Holy Cross over Marquette and Bucknell over Temple.

The South
Alabama over Tennessee — Most modern dislike football.

Mississippi over Tulane — Linebacking is football's toughest job.

Georgia Tech over Auburn — The quick kick is the game's most exciting maneuver.

Also: Miami over Mississippi State, Maryland over North Carolina, Kentucky over Florida, Georgia over Vanderbilt, Texas Tech over LSU, Virginia over VMI, North Carolina State over Florida State, Furman over Citadel and VPI over Richmond.

The Midwest
Notre Dame over Michigan State — Big Ten guys think they've got a lock on fine football.

Wisconsin over Purdue — There should be more accent on physical conditioning.

Illinois over Minnesota — Or the Illinois shape up as the gridiron flop of '54.

Also: Ohio State over Iowa, Oklahoma over Kansas, Michigan over Northwestern, Indiana over Missouri, Detroit over Villanova, Colorado over Iowa State, Nebraska over Oregon State and Cincinnati over Hardin-Simmons.

The West
Southern California over Oregon — Colorful football coaches are few and far between.

UCLA over Stanford — Most of California over Washington State — They need a few orators.

Also: Utah over Denver, COP over Colorado Aggies, Wyoming over New Mexico and Utah State over Montana.

The Southwest
Texas over Arkansas — Line play still wins the ball game.

Rice over SMU — Anybody can make All-America with enough publicity.

Baylor over Washington — Pittsburgh Phil would have gone broke in this racket.

Also: TCU over Texas Aggies, Kansas State over Tulsa, Oklahoma Aggies over Houston and Arizona over Idaho.

League Approves Transfer of A's To Kansas City
CHICAGO (U.P.) — The third transfer of a major league franchise in two years was imminent today with American League approval for the shift of the Philadelphia Athletics to Kansas City under new ownership of Chicago industrialist Arnold Johnson.

The league Tuesday night approved such a transfer, but left the final decision whether to sell the team to Roy and Earl Mack, who together own 52 per cent of the Athletics' stock.

Wilmoth Placed On First Team By Coach Eliot

Will Play at Left Tackle Against Minnesota Saturday

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Fred "Catfish" Wilmoth, 6-foot 3-inch, 272-pound sophomore from Harrisburg, was elevated to a first-team role at left tackle today as Coach Ray Eliot began preparations for the Illinois invasion of Minnesota.

Eliot was encouraged by Wilmoth's play against Ohio State and feels he may help to solve some of the line problems which have harassed Illinois in three consecutive defeats.

Despite a 40-7 loss to the Buckeyes, Eliot felt his squad played its best game of the season. "I have to say we played our best — remarkable as that may seem. The score doesn't indicate it, but the level of opposition was much different. Ohio State is a fine ball club and should do well in the Big Ten race."

As for the Illinois future, Eliot doesn't see much chance for his charges, but he said, "We'll keep working hard to see if we can come up with something."

Barring injury in practice sessions this week, in which there will be virtually constant scrimmaging, Eliot plans to start Gary Francis of Bloomington at left end and veteran Steve Nosek, Chicago (Taft) at right. Bucky Tate, New Castle, Pa., will team with Wilmoth at tackles unless a recurring ankle injury benches him.

Capt. Jan Smid, River Grove, and Wally Vernasco, Mishawaka, Ind., are fixtures at guards as is Jack Chamblin, Robinson, at center. Eliot indicated he'll start Bob Gongola, Chicago (Weber), quarterback and return Abe Woodson, Chicago (Austin) sophomore, to starting status at right halfback, demoting Mickey Bates, Kewanee, to a relief role at fullback.

J. C. Caroline, Columbia, S. C., will be ready at left half although he has serious shoulder bruises and Bob Wiman, Robinson, will start at fullback. Other squad members who will be given consideration this week because of improved play in the Ohio game are Ralph Nelson, sophomore guard from Ottawa, and Dean Willmann, senior end from Chicago (Amundsen).

Bull Pups Drop 18-0 Tilt to Mt. Vernon Team

The Harrisburg Bull Pups ran up against a big, fast Mt. Vernon team last night and were defeated, 18-0.

Neither team showed much of a ground attack from scrimmage. Mt. Vernon accumulating a net 73 yards and Harrisburg 42 but the foe got away to score three times, first on a 49-yard pass with a minute and 46 seconds left in the first half, and twice in the third quarter, on a sensational run by Neal and a 75-yard runback of a punt.

Neither team showed much offense the first half, but when Mt. Vernon took over on the M-31, a 17-yard pass that followed a one-yard gain put the ball on the H-29 and from there Geoff Trout, quarterback, tossed a 49-yard pass to Wiley Hopkins, end, that brought about the first score.

Seven Local First Downs
In the third quarter Mt. Vernon moved to the H-12 but a pass from center on the next play sailed over the head of Neal, back to the 30. Several Pups got their hands on him around the 32 but Neal squirmed away and ran all the way to score.

The same quarter saw McGannon, Mt. Vernon safety man, take a punt on his 25 and run 75 yards for a touchdown.

None of three kicks for extra point was successful.

Harrisburg made seven first downs to six for Mt. Vernon. The locals made a net 42 yards rushing and 47 passing for 89 yards from scrimmage. Mt. Vernon made a net 73 rushing and 104 passing for 177. Harrisburg tried 16 passes and connected with nine for short gains. Two were intercepted. Mt. Vernon hit three times on seven throws.

Harrisburg was penalized 25 yards, Mt. Vernon 45.

Coaches Jim McKee and Jess Nichols of the Pups started Bennie Fulkerson and Bill Henshaw at ends, Ray Hassett and Dick Lou at tackles, Ronnie Vick and Lue Williams at guards, Colin Eddy at center, Jim Cummins at quarterback, Charles Cummins and Trevor Whiteside at halfbacks and John Ziegler at fullback. Seeing action were Bob Clark, Donald Biggs, Dale Bryan, Gary Aldridge, Melvin Hicks, Cletus Killman, Jimmy Lambert and Bob Shewmake.

architects had informed him he could get the Kansas City park, which he now owns, ready for opening day of the 1955 season.

Johnson said he offered Roy Mack a "responsible position" with the Kansas City organization.

Johnson will pay $3,375,000 for the club, of which $604,000 will go to Connie Mack, father of the team who holds 48 per cent of the stock. Both Roy and Earle will receive $450,000 for their stock of 26 per cent each.

Johnson was one of five bidders for the team in the eight-hour session which extended until nearly midnight.

Undeclared Centralia Orphans to Play Bull Dogs Here Friday Night In Annual Homecoming Contest

The Centralia Orphans, grid scourges of southern Illinois, come to Harrisburg Friday night for the annual HTHS Homecoming game, and Bull Dog Coach Lawrence Caluffetti this week is working his boys in an effort to find some one to do what nobody else has done this year — stop them.

Jimmy Evers' Orphans have won all their games, three of them decisively and one by a single touchdown. Unbeaten and unscorched on Murphysboro last week bowed to the South Seven grid conference entry but by the lone tally. In the conference they have beaten Benton and Herrin, who were supposed to give them the most trouble, and out of the loop they opened the season by trouncing Flora.

Tied For First
At present Harrisburg and Centralia are tied for the league lead with two conference wins and no losses each. Harrisburg has beaten Marion and Mt. Vernon, only teams played in the South Seven.

The Bull Dogs played well last Friday night in beating the Mt. Vernon Rams, 6 to 0. The Rams, according to John Backaway of the Mt. Vernon Register-News, played a good game, better than they have done in previous games, although they bowed to the locals.

According to the clippings, Centralia has everything this year, and the scores bear this out. There are 15 lettermen on the squad, four more than are needed to field a team, and they are led by tailback

Bobby Joe Mason, the spindly-legged lad who can run and pass superbly.

Running with Mason are a couple of exceptional backs, Paul Ritter and Larry McGreavey. The line is good and deep.

However, the Bull Dogs have played their best ball against the toughest team they have been up against, and if the line charges well both on offense and defense, the locals could put up a great battle against the foe.

Other Games
There will be two other South Seven conference games Friday night — Benton at Herrin, which should be an outstanding contest, and West Frankfort at Mt. Vernon, which also could go either way.

Marion, the seventh conference team, travels to Johnston City for a non-league battle.

Other Friday night games in southern Illinois:
Shawnee Consolidated unit at Christopher;
Zeigler at Carbondale Uni high; Carbondale at Chester;
Carterville at Sesser; Carmi at Eldorado;
Du Quoin at Anna-Jonesboro; Elkville at Pinckneyville;

AEC to Build New Facility In Missouri

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (UP)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced today it will build a $33,300,000 facility at the government-owned Weldon Spring, Mo., ordinance works.

The new facility will be operated by the Mallinckrodt Chemical Works of St. Louis. Its function will be to convert high grade uranium ore and concentrates into highly purified uranium compounds or metal.

The commission also announced a six-million-dollar expansion program for Mallinckrodt's existing uranium refinery in St. Louis.

The Weldon Spring refinery will occupy about 200 acres at the eastern end of the 2,100-acre manufacturing area of the ordinance works where high explosive was produced in World War II. It will consist of a purification unit, a uranium chemical unit, uranium foundry and auxiliary facilities.

The commission said construction would get underway in 1955 and the project would employ about 2,000 workers in building. A permanent operating force of 1,300 will be required when production starts.

Carriers Warned Against Leaving Papers in Mail Boxes

The practice of using city and rural mail boxes as a receptacle or a newspaper by newspaper carriers is strictly forbidden by postal regulations, it was pointed out by local post office officials today.

There have been many instances recently where a carrier for The Daily Register left a paper for a subscriber in the mail box and this has been called to the attention of the carrier by the postal rural route carrier.

In practically every case, the carrier had been requested to leave The Register in the mail box by the subscriber, but the box, once it is designated as a mail box, is no longer under the jurisdiction of the subscriber or patron, but subject to postal regulations.

All Daily Register carriers are being warned against using the mail boxes and the cooperation of the subscriber is respectfully requested.

Democrats Show Optimism At Big Rally

WASHINGTON (UP)—Former President Truman, Adlai Stevenson and Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee all brimmed over with election optimism Tuesday night at a big Democratic rally here.

Stevenson, the party's 1952 presidential candidate, declared in a message that the November election will be a "resounding victory for democracy and its warmest champion, the Democratic Party."

Mr. Truman, in a message read by his daughter Margaret, said the nation " sorely needs a new Democratic Congress" because the Republicans are "a party of special privilege and for special privilege."

Clement, main speaker of the evening, announced that "Victory is on the menu tonight... the Republican Party thundered its way into the people's confidence in 1952 and blundered its way out of that confidence in 1954."

Five-hundred party faithful turned out for the $54-a-plate victory dinner, sponsored by the advisory council of the National Democratic Committee and local party leaders. It was the biggest pre-election shindig scheduled by the party in this area.

There was no direct reference to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's now celebrated remark about the bird dogs and kennel dogs. But as the affair got underway, the band struck up with "Where Has My Little Dog Gone" and "Doggie in the Window."

And National Democratic Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell said the Republicans have all the campaign money but "we're getting some breaks too—we have Secretary Wilson."

Commitment of Boy Stirs Up Public Furor

MONROE, La. (UP)—A public furor was stirred up here today over the commitment of an 11-year-old boy to an institution because he threatened two school officials with a shotgun to save the life of his mongrel dog.

"I did it because they were going to kill my dog," the child said. "He is the only thing I own."

His dog was seized when it followed him to school one day. He first begged for its release without success, then took sterner measures.

The boy, whose name was not disclosed because of his age, was swiftly committed to the Louisiana Training Institute for Juvenile Delinquent Boys after the incident. He still was there today.

An angry protest went up from local citizens who heard of the case and a second hearing was scheduled for next Friday by City Judge Howell Heard.

The boy, whose father is dead and whose mother's sole income is $55 a month in state welfare assistance, was committed to the training institute within five hours after he threatened Mrs. Tina G. Clark, principal of Ransom School, and M. C. Griggs, parish school superintendent of transportation.

The dog, of questionable ancestry, is safe. An anonymous donor paid the pet out of the city pound and had him vaccinated.

Another man built a pen at the boy's home for the animal.

Hurricane Hits Bahamas After Swipe at Haiti

MIAMI (UP)—Hurricane Hazel swept through the south-eastern Bahamas today with diminished force after a devastating swipe at western Haiti where towns were flooded and many persons were reported killed.

Highest winds were down to minimum hurricane strength of 75 miles an hour, but an advisory from the Miami Weather Bureau warned the intensity may build up again when the howler hits open water later today.

Hazel was crossing Great Inagua Island's northeast corner. The advisory said Haiti lost her power, originally 115 miles an hour, when it slammed into the 7,000-foot high peaks of Haiti.

The island of Mayaguana, which lies about 160 miles north of Haiti, was on the alert for the approaching hurricane. The island is the site of a guided missile station.

Heaviest damage from the storm was on Haiti.

Meager communications made it impossible to arrive at an accurate casualty figure, but reports from the thickly populated island spoke of at least 200 deaths or injuries. At least 800 persons were homeless in the city of Aux Cayes in southern Haiti.

Weather forecasters warned that the hurricane might regain its full strength over open water. The Bahamas battered down as far to the north as Nassau for lethal winds and high seas.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Miami estimated the top winds of 115 miles per hour that blasted the western tip of Haiti had diminished to 80 or 90 miles per hour.

The tempest brushed harmlessly past the huge U. S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay on Cuba's eastern shore but slammed with full might into Haitian cities across the windward strait from Cuba.

Flash floods cascading down Haiti's 7,000-foot-high mountains cut roads between two big peninsulas jutting into the strait, isolating them from the capital of Port Au Prince.

Says Russia Has Supersonic Planes

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas said today Russia has airplanes which can fly "faster than the speed of sound" and deliver atomic bombs. Thomas' statement appeared to be the first official pronouncement ever crediting Russia with having developed a supersonic plane, not to mention such a plane capable of carrying atomic bombs.

Thomas mentioned the plane in a prepared speech before the Greater Philadelphia Delaware-South Jersey Council. He did not identify it.
